

Player of the Week Nomination for September 21:

Cami Whitney is only 2-3 in the overall singles play this season but she is the epitome of a tennis competitor embracing a positive yet humble attitude, an excellent work ethic and the best tennis footwork in the Northeast. She is a delight to coach, a fierce competitor and I like forward to a lot more wins before the fall season ends